Schalkenbach Foundation Launches Quarterly Journal
Incorporation and Organization Completed

NEW YORK, N. Y.—The Robert Schalkenbach Foundation announces the incorporation of the American Journal of Economics and Sociology. The Journal will be a quarterly publication devoted to scholarly papers dealing with the social sciences. The directors of the new corporation are Otto K. Dorn, Charles Johnson Post, Albert Ficke, Harry Gunnison Brown, George Raymond Geiger, Frank Chodorov, and Will Lissner.

The Journal has secured the cooperation of a group of distinguished specialists, who will act as an editorial advisory board and pass upon material intended for publication in the Journal. Will Lissner will be editor, and Frank Chodorov business manager; Miss V. G. Peterson of the Schalkenbach Foundation will act as secretary. The Journal’s editorial office will be at 32 East 29th Street, New York City.

All the collaborators in this enterprise will serve without compensation. A grant from the Schalkenbach Foundation provides for the expense of publication. The first issue of the Journal will appear in the autumn of 1941, and quarterly thereafter. The subscription price will be $3.00 per annum, $1.00 for a single issue.

The Journal of Economics and Sociology will be an important innovation; it will be unique of its kind. For the first time in history there will be made available to students of economics papers by professors and economists of national and international reputation, who will discuss economic and social questions in the light of Georgist theory. The Journal will not be edited for a popular readership, but rather for advanced students and scholars in philosophy, sociology, economics, and related fields.

A publication of integrity, dignity, and genuine scholarship must eventually command the respect of the academic world, and immensely increase the prestige of the Georgist movement. The directors are conscious of their responsibility, and fully determined to make the most of their unusual opportunity.
