THE SPEAKER'S ROOMS
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

November 18, 1916.

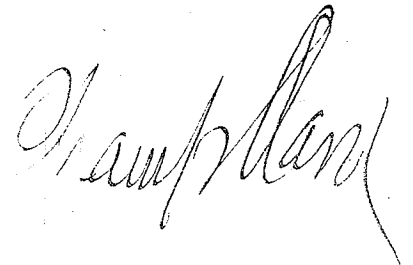

Mrs. Henry George,
1761 Euclid Street, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mrs. George:

I have read with a great deal of genuine sorrow an account of the death of your husband. He was one of the best men I ever knew and one of my best friends.

He was a great humanitarian; his heart beat constantly for the good of his fellow man. I have always regreted that lack of health interrupted his promising career in the House.

Your friend,

HB
