Mr. Henry George Jr
Dear Sir:

I have just finished reading your book, "The Romance of John Winthrop," and feel impelled to write you a few lines to tell you how much I have enjoyed it. I wish the field of Fiction could claim more books like it. It is to be regretted that your honored Father could not have been spared to read it. I can well imagine how proud he would have been for his son to have been the author of such a book. Accept my sincere congratulations and believe me to be

Cordially yours
R. F. C. Browne
