

Dear Reader:

It is my privilege to invite you to a joint conference sponsored by the International Union for Land Value Taxation and Free Trade and the Henry George School of Social Science. It will be held at the Henry Hudson Hotel, 353 West 57th Street, New York, from August 30th to September 5th. A program with details regarding rates will be mailed to all HGN subscribers. However, several additional guest speakers are expected whose names will reach us too late to be included in the list.

Visiting speakers from abroad will include Ashley Mitchell, V. H. Blundell and V. G. Saldji of England; J. H. and K. J. Kristensen of Denmark; Gustav Bohnsack of Germany, and others who will bring reports from various European, African and Asian countries, as well as Australia, Canada, the Caribbean and Latin America.

Speakers whose names may be better known to American Georgists are: Perry Prentice of Time, Inc.; Raymond Moley of Newsweek; Mendel Fisher of the Jewish National Fund; Frank Wiles and Mary Rawson of Canada; Miss V. G. Peterson of the Robert Schalkenbach Foundation (at the Hawaiian Pavilion, World's Fair); Professor Clyde Reeves (at Temple University, Philadelphia); the beloved toastmaster, Joseph S. Thompson, President of the Henry George School; Robert Tideman; and those still to be announced.

Most of the sessions will be in English and will be held at the hotel in New York. A few programs in Spanish, French, Italian, German, etc., will be translated by well informed interpreters. Visits to Henry George's Birthplace in Philadelphia and the World's Fair will be arranged by bus. New York has something to offer to everyone — a wealth of information and suggestions for spending free time will be available from New York hostesses.

Reservations for rooms should be sent to the hotel. Conference reservations should be sent well in advance, to the Henry George School, 50 East 69th Street, New York, N. Y. 10021, U.S.A.

ROBERT CLANCY, Director
Henry George School
