

Land Reform: the Path to Justice and Prosperity

The 34th
Conference of the Council of Georgist Organizations

Join an eclectic gathering of economists and social reformers as we explore ways to deal with our seemingly intractable economic problems: financial instability and corruption, unaffordable housing, inequities with Proposition 13, corporate privilege and deepening poverty. How can we get on the path toward justice and sustainable prosperity for all people?

