

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

- The State Distinguished from Society.—Its Organization not the Result of "Social Contract," but of Compulsion Warranted only by Necessity.—Its Functions Classified..... 9

CHAPTER II.

- Amplification of the Functions of Government.—Natural Inalienable Rights.—The State Should Mind its Own Business.. 24

CHAPTER III.

- The Functions of Government a Guide to Legislative Reform; Considerations of Sympathy, Morality and Religion.—The Composite Right to Labor..... 39

CHAPTER IV.

- The Right to Land Inalienable.—Land Not Property.—A Just System of Land Tenure and of Taxation ..... 52

CHAPTER V.

- Freedom of Contract.—Natural Competition.—Persons Natural and Artificial.—Corporate Privilege.—Trusts.—Civic Corruption..... 72

CHAPTER VI.

- A Legal Tender Currency Should be Pure Money Issued by the Government Only.—What is Pure Money?..... 87

CHAPTER VII.

- The Scientific Method Applicable to the Solution of All Government Problems.—The Tariff.—Woman Suffrage, et cetera..... 101