

INDEX

- Absorption of taxes on rent, 135.
- Access to land, equalization of, 102-103.
- Adams, H. C., on rent a social product, 123.
- Adams, John Quincy, a residence of, 115.
- Agriculture, effect of single tax on, 94.
- Alberta, taxation reforms in, 160-162.
- Amortisation, principle of, 140, 141.
- Andrews, E. Benjamin, on taxation of rent, 106 (ftn.); on rent a social product, 123.
- Assessed valuations, 50-52, 87-88, 110.
- Australia, taxation reforms in, 165.
- Authorship, not a form of monopoly, 23-24 (ftn.).
- Automatic taxation, 43-44.
- Bascom, John, on impossibility of shifting rent taxes, 128.
- Bastable, C. F., on selling value of land an untaxed value, 140.
- Bell, Alexander, 80.
- Bessemer, Sir Henry, 80.
- "Betterments," 87.
- Boards of equalization 52.
- Boston, ground rent of, 109-112; land valuations of, 109-110; assessed valuations of, 110-111, 116-117; gross land value of, estimated, 111-112; income of, from taxation in 1907, 112; an object lesson based on, 116-118; value of buildings in 1887 and 1907, 117; taxes of, in 1907, 118; value of ground rent in, 121; per capita tax rate in 1907, 121; gross ground rent taken in, 144; appreciation of land values in, 145.
- Boylston Hotel, Boston, 116.
- Bribery, and ground rent, 49, 54, 57, 88-89.
- British Columbia, taxation reforms in, 158.
- Broadway Railroad, New York, bribery by, 88.
- Buildings, values of, in Boston, 109-111, 114-117; results of decadence of, 116-117; taxation of, 137-139.
- Bullock, C. J., on rent a social product, 123.
- Burnaby, taxation reforms in, 158.
- Burtsell, Dr. R. L., in the McGlynn case, 42.
- California, assessment of farm lands in, 51.
- Capital, remedy to increase earnings of, 17; investment of, retarded by present method of taxation, 73-74; and railroads, 56-57.
- Capitalization of the land tax, 142; illustration of, 142-145.
- Capitalized rent, defined, 47.
- Capitalized tax, effect of, on selling value of land, 125-129; in the United States, 142.

- Carver, T. N., on selling value of land an untaxed value, 140.
- Catholic Church, attitude on land question, 42.
- Cause and effect, applied to ground rent, 98-100.
- Clark, John B., on rent, a social product, 103 (ftn.).
- Commodities, tax on, transferable, 128.
- Confiscation, of land, 15-17; of rent, 17-18.
- Consumers and taxes, 28-29, 128.
- Copyright, not a form of monopoly, 23-24 (ftn.).
- Cost of living, not affected by ground rent tax, 136.
- Cuyler, George W., 31.
- Dead hands, land held by, 145.
- Distribution, favorably affected by rent taxation, 102, 104.
- Dodge, Edwin, 31.
- Double taxation, 48.
- Economic rent, defined as ground rent, 135; applied to public expenses, 143; tax on cannot be shifted, 125-129; not affected by legislation, 135; measures values of all services, 136; defined, 137.
- Economists, opinions of: on rent a social product, 123-124; on impossibility of shifting tax on rent, 127-129; on selling value of land an untaxed value, 139-141.
- Economy, absence of, in tax affairs, 108.
- Edison, Thomas, 80.
- Ely, R. T., answer to single tax argument, 141.
- England, and smuggling, 30; opposition to single tax in, 58-59.
- Equality of rights, 9, 15, 36.
- Equalization of taxation, the office of ground rent, 102; relation to depreciation of building values, 115; how to effect, 67, 117.
- Ethical basis of the single tax, 149.
- Exemption, resulting from the single tax, 118; of assessed values, 118-119; of last purchase, 130; land owners and, 134-135; reasons for, 151, 154.
- European countries, taxation of land in, 11.
- Farm lands, improvements of, and taxation, 51.
- Farmer, the, and the single tax, 19, 94; function of, 113.
- Ferry franchises in New York, 77.
- Fertility value, 150.
- Feudal tenure, 13.
- Ford Franchise Tax Act of New York, 101.
- Formula, for amount of ground rent, 111-112.
- Franchises, taxation of, 53-54, 88-89; and fraud, 54-58; selling at auction, 77.
- Fraud, in revenue taxes, 30; in land sales, 85.
- Generic peculiarities of land, 96-124, 125-129, 130-147.
- George, Henry, extract from "Progress and Poverty," 14-35; extract from, 17 (ftn.), 18 (ftn.).
- Giffen, Sir Robert, on selling value of land as an untaxed value, 140.
- Germany, taxation reforms in, 166-168.
- Government, attitude of, toward monopolies, 25; relation of to man, 37; and ground rent, 44.

- Great Britain, taxation reforms in, 168-170.
- Gross rent, defined, 110.
- Gross value, defined, 134.
- Ground rent, Adam Smith on, 7; of uninhabited houses, 8; vs. ordinary rent of land, 8; defined, 44, 96; nature of, 97-100; operation of, 100-102; office of, 102-104; cause of, 104-107; maintenance of, 108; of Boston, 109-112.
- Ground rent tax, vs. house rent, Adam Smith on, 7; of uninhabited houses, 8; not a discouragement to industry, 8; first step in securing, 10; society and, 11; not an injustice, 12; not a tax on landlords, 13; Henry George on, 14-35; would make land common property, 14; how to secure, 15; indorsed by Herbert Spencer, 15; and confiscation, 16-17; collection does not involve new machinery, 17; merely a change in mode, 17; easily adjusted, 18; and workingmen, 19; and farmers, 19; tried by canons of taxation, 20-27; vs. speculative rent, 26; ease and cheapness of collection of, 27-29; element of certainty in, 31; fairness of, 32-35, 46; and poverty, 40; and wages, 41, 69-72; an automatic taxation, 43; defined, 48, 136, 137; a natural tax, 47-48; no objectionable methods in the collection of, 49; practicable, 50; of farm lands, 51; and monopolies, 53; and tenants, 58-60; cannot be shifted, 58-60, 125-129; illustrated, 60; amount of, 62; social effects of, 67-95; bribery made unprofitable by, 88; and the tenement house problem, 89-92; tax imposed by time, 114-118; exemptions, 118-119, and the income tax, 119-123; opinion of economists, 123.
- Homestead Law, 85.
- House lots, what is involved in purchasing, 131-132; hypothetical cost of, 133-134.
- House rent, vs. ground rent, 7, 61.
- Houses, in New York City, 92; hypothetical purchase of, 137-139; value of, affected by mortgage, 137; rent of, not affected by taxation, 138.
- Hudson, "The Railways and the Republic," 79.
- Ideal tax, requirements of, 20-21.
- Immigration and wages, 71-72.
- Improvements, 92, 93.
- Income tax, injustice of, 32-33; a form of single tax, 119.
- Increased capital, 93.
- Incumbrances. See Mortgage and Taxes.
- Individual and the State, affected by the single tax, 101.
- Inherited property, 102, 105.
- Immunity from taxation, of landowners, 90.
- Invention, as a form of monopoly, 23.
- Ireland, agricultural rents in, 62 (ftn.).
- Kiao-Chau, taxation reforms in, 165-166.
- Labor, taxed on basis of its own construction, 116.
- Land, securing equal rights to, 14-35; private property in, unjust, 14; confiscation of

- 15; reselling to highest bidders, 16; unjust to confiscate, 16; and ground rent, 18; overvaluation of, 52; speculation in, under single tax, 67-68; rental value of vs. capital value of, 96; first generic peculiarity of, 96-124; inherited, 102, 105; rights and privileges pertaining to, 132; economic and social advantages of, 97; distinction between land values and, 102; indestructibility of, 103; disposition of taxes on, 104; second generic peculiarity of, 125-129; third generic peculiarity of, 130-147; defined, 131; selling price of, 133; relation of man to use of, 133; inequality of taxation of, 143; demand for, in Boston, 145; site value of, 150, 152, 153.
- Land frauds, 85.
- Land owners, the single tax not unjust to, 18; in England, 64; could not bribe assessors, 87; exempt from taxation, 134-135; in Boston, 145.
- Land tax, in Europe, 11; in England, 11-12, 139, 140; not a tax but a rent charge, 12; not a tax on landlords, 13; in Bengal, 13; vs. feudal tax, 13; and prices, 28; affected by change of ownership, 130; capitalization of, in United States, 142.
- Land values, not increased by efforts of landlords, 9-10; easily ascertained, 27; affected by population, 35; estimation of, for ground rent, 50; of farms, 51; determining, 52-53, 107; affected by public improvements, 97; vs. monopolies and special privileges, 101; present and past, 102-105; a social product, 103, 107, 123-124; agencies enhancing, 106; in Boston, 109-113, 117-118; and decay of buildings, 116-117; an untaxed value, 130-147; effect of mortgage and interest on, 130; relation of "rights and privileges" to, 131-132.
- Landlords, and spontaneous increase of rent, 9-10; ground rent not unjust to, 12-13; State acting the part of, 18; natural tax-gatherers, 47; and tenants, 58, 64-65; function of, 113; effect of ground rent on, 114, 118, 127, 128, 129; John Stuart Mill on, 128; as owners of both houses and land, 135 (ftn.); in England, 140.
- Maedonell, John, on the land tax, 145-147.
- Manila cigars, tax on, 29.
- Market value of land, how affected by taxation, 126.
- Massachusetts, assessment of farm lands in, 51.
- McGlynn Controversy, the, 42.
- McGlynn, Edward, on ground rent, 36-42.
- Mill, John Stuart, extract from "Principles of Political Economy," 9-13; on transferability of ground rent to tenants, 59, 128.
- Mohammed Ali, and the tax on date trees, 22.
- Monopolies, taxation of, 23, 53-54; patents, 23; copyright, 23-24 (ftn.); the greatest of, 25; railway, 54; the

- New York Central Railroad, 57.
- Mortgage, defined, 125; effect of, on selling value of land, 119 (ftn.), 131, 133-134, 138; effect of, on rent, 126; paid out of gross income, 134.
- Natural taxation, 43.
- Net rent, compared with gross rent, 110-111.
- Net value vs. gross value, 110, 134.
- New South Wales, taxation reforms in, 163-164.
- New tax, defined, 133 (ftn.).
- New Zealand, taxation reform in, 162-163.
- New York Central Railroad, a monopoly, 57, 81.
- New Westminster, B. C., taxation reforms in, 159.
- Nicholson, J. S., on shifting of ground rent, 129.
- North Vancouver, N. C., taxation reforms in, 159.
- Old tax, defined, 133 (ftn.)
- Overvaluation, of land, 52.
- Patents, 23-24 (ftn.), 54.
- Philadelphia land value in 1686, 102.
- Point Grey, B. C., taxation reforms in, 159.
- Population, relation of, to value of land, 35; and land privileges, 97; not a cause of ground rent, 107.
- Poverty and ground rent, 14, 17, 40.
- "Principles of Political Economy," Mill, extract from, 9-13.
- Private property in land, injustice of, 14, 39; making it common property, 14; confiscation of, 14, 15, 16; evils of, 40.
- Private titles, abolishing, 15.
- Production, effect of taxes on, 21-22, 29; not checked by ground rent, 26; stimulated by reformed taxation, 68.
- "Progress and Poverty," Henry George, extract from, 14-35.
- Preuss, Arthur, quoted, 42 (ftn.).
- Public improvements, and land values, 97, 131-132; and ground rent, 108.
- Public service rent, now paid to landlord, 108-109.
- Railways, as monopolies, 54, 57; franchise of, 54-56, 77.
- Real estate, taxation confined to, 113-114.
- "Residuum," 91.
- Revenue laws, a check on production, 22; evils of, 30-31.
- Rental value vs. capital value, 96 (ftn.).
- Rent, defined by Ricardo, 45; cannot be abolished by the state, 47; a natural tribute, 100; for special privileges, 101; socially maintained, 103; relation to distribution, 104; for public service, 108; a social product, 109, 123; determining amount of, 129.
- Ricardo, David, on rent, 45; on ground rent not transferable to tenants, 59; on shifting the tax on land rent, 127.
- Right of possession, 150.
- Right of production, 151.
- "Rights and privileges," constituting land values, 132.
- Rogers, Thorold, on shifting of ground rent, 128.
- San Francisco, effects of "protective laws" on, 25.
- Saskatchewan, taxation reform in, 162.

- Satolli, Monsignor, attitude toward single tax, 42.
- Sartorius, on incidence of rent taxation, 128.
- Seligman, E. R. A., on shifting of ground rent, 128-129.
- Selling value of land, contrasted with assessed valuation, 110; effect of mortgage on, 119, 134, 137; an untaxed value, 130-147.
- Shearman, Thomas G., on natural taxation, 43-66; on tax on land rent cannot be shifted, 127.
- Ship-building, effect of present methods on, 22, 25.
- Single tax, a natural tax, 97, 135; effect of, 101; calculated for Boston, 111-112, 121; resulting exemptions, 118-119; vs. an income tax, 119-122; Federal action on, 124; objections to answered; 141-147. See also Ground Rent.
- Single Tax Catechism, 148-157; agricultural towns, 155; capitalized tax, 153, 154; confiscation, 154; cost of living, 151; distribution, 152; double taxation, 154, 155; economic rent, 149; ethical basis, 149; exemption, 151, 154; farmer, 155; fertility value, 150; franchises, 151; ground rent, 149, 154, 155, 156; generic peculiarities, 153; house rent, 155, 156; improvements, 151, 155; injustice, 154; land in use, 155; land owner, 154, 156; land value, 149, 150, 152, 153, 154, 156; land, 150, 152, 153, 154, 156; landlords, 151, 152; nationalization, 149; patents, 151; prices, 152; private appropriation, 152; property in land, 149, 150; privilege, 151, 152; public service, 154; revenue, 150; right of possession, 150; right of production, 151; single tax, 149, 150, 152, 153, 155, 156; site value, 150, 153; socialization, 149; stocks and bonds, 151; social value, 153; tariff, 151; tenant, 155; tax, old or new, 152, 153; transfer of tax, 156; unit of calculation, 156; vacant land, 155; wages, 152, 154.
- Single tax achievements, 158-170; in British Columbia, 158-160; in Alberta, 160-162; in Saskatchewan, 162; in New Zealand, 162-163; in New South Wales, 163-164; in South Australia, 164; in other Australian states, 165; in the commonwealth of Australia, 165; in Kiao-Chau, 165-166; in German cities, 166; in German empire, 167-168; in Great Britain, 168-170.
- Site value, 150, 152, 153.
- Smith, Adam, extract from "Wealth of Nations," 7-9; on equality of taxation, 32; on incomes, 34.
- Social effects of ground rent, 67-95; effect in general, 67; stimulus to production, 67-69; effect on wages, 69-70; immigration and wages, 71; amount of rise in wages, 72; effect on capital, 73-75; absolute security of property, 75; improvements paid for on tax sales, 76-78; the railway problem, 78-80; remedy for unjust appropriation and "watered stocks," 80-82; remedy for past corruption, 83-85; re-

- storing usurped lands, 85;
 reform in government, 86;
 special local assessments dispensed with, 87-88;
 bribery made unprofitable, 88-89; the tenement-house problem solved, 89-92;
 summary of conclusions, 92-95.
- "Social Statics," Herbert Spencer, quotation from, 15-16.
- South Australia, taxation reforms in, 164-165.
- Society and its right to exact ground rent, 11.
- South Vancouver, B. C., taxation reforms in, 159.
- "Special privilege" and ground rent, 88; taxation of, 100, 101, 120; renting, 101;
 value of, 102; income from, 120; absorbs taxes, 121.
- Speculation, abolished by natural taxation, 67.
- Speculative rent vs. ground rent, 26.
- Spencer, Herbert, extract from "Social Statics," 15-16.
- Spontaneous increase of rent, 10.
- State, the, and monopolies, 25; requires revenues, 38; and ground rent, 46, 47; and the individual, 101.
- Street railways, 82.
- Supply and demand, 142.
- Taxation, canons of, 20-21; of wealth, 22; of monopolies, 23, 24; of invention, 23; of authorship, 23; " protective," 24-25; frauds, 30, 54; investigated by Commission in New York, 31; equality in, 32-35, 49;
 ethics of, 38; of industry, 39; automatic, 43; correction of rate of, 52; and franchises, 54-58; increase of, 63; the "power to destroy" and "power to build up," 122; relation of, to rate of interest, 142.
- Taxes, abolition of all save land, 18; effect of, on production, 21-22; Mohammed Ali and the date trees, 22; Duke of Alva and, 22; effect of on shipbuilding in United States, 22; a check on production, 22; on monopolies, 23; on money, 28; on buildings, 28; on manufactures, 28;
 on Manila cigars, 29; and high prices, 29; present methods of collecting, 30;
 and morals, 31; on industry, 39; liens held by the state, 126; "old" and "new," 133.
- Tenants, distinction between landlords and, 61; in Ireland, 62; in England, 64; share economic rent with landlords, 65; taxes and rent of, 125; how affected by ground rent tax, 125-129.
- Tenement house problem, 89.
- Undervaluation, of land, 30, 52.
- Unearned increment, belongs to the state, 9; defined, 36-37.
- United States, inequality of taxes in, 142.
- Untaxed value, selling value in land a, 130-147.
- Vacant land, 155.
- Value. See Land Value and Buildings.
- Vancouver, B. C., taxation reforms in, 159-160.
- Wages, how affected by tax on ground rent, 14, 17, 41, 66, 69, 93, 152; kept down by private ownership, 40; defined. 69; nominal, 69;

- real, 70; money, 70; immigration and, 71; increase of, 72, 93; women and, 72; effect of, on capital, 73-74; effect of just taxation on, 104; of society, 122; "fair," 152.
- Walker, Francis A., on shifting of ground rent, 128.
- Wealth, and taxes, 22; stimulated by ground rent, 27; relation of increase of, to rent, 65; of inventions, 80; of British dukes and railway kings, 80, 81.
- "Wealth of Nations," Adam Smith, extract from, 7-9.
- Wells, David A., 31
- West Shore Railroad, 57, 81.
- Western Union Telegraph, a monopoly, 56.
- Whiskey and tobacco taxes, 30.
- Women and wages, 72.
- Workingmen, why opposed to single tax, 19.

73.