

GARRISON & HOWE,
Commercial Paper and Investment Securities.

JOHN HANCOCK BUILDING,
Second Floor, Room 218.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON.
PERCIVAL S. HOWE.

Boston, June 3, 1896.

Dear Mr. George.

Your letter to Stevens meets the absolute approval of Pillsbury & myself. - It is not an infringement on the right of free speech, when city ordinances are broken, for the authorities to apprehend the law-breakers. - The abolitionists kept the distinction clear & had the legal as well as the abstract right of discussion on their side.

It would be the height of folly & unreason for you to go to Belmont on purpose to pose as a martyr. - We must take what comes in the line of duty but to carry a chip on the shoulder & to invite people to tread on the tail of ~~our~~ ^{our} coats is to display the spirit to break down.

GARRISON & HOWE,
Commercial Paper and Investment Securities.

JOHN HANCOCK BUILDING,
Second Floor, Room 218.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON,
FERCIVAL S. HOWE,

2
Boston,1896.

Zeal has evidently outrun discretion in Delaware. I fear the ^{belligerent} influence of Stephenson has overshadowed the better judgment of our dear Stephens. - A persuasive is better than an invasive campaign.
Tact is the commodity much needed by the campaigners. -

Yours in fullest accord,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison