

Boston Welcomes You
to the
NINTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE
HENRY GEORGE SCHOOL
OF SOCIAL SCIENCE
JULY 1 TO JULY 4, 1953

All sessions at
HOTEL VENDOME

You will hear:

- COL. E. C. HARWOOD, Great Barrington,
Mass.,
On "The Great Semantic Delusion"
- KLAUS L. HANSEN, Milwaukee, Wis.,
On "Are We Meeting the Challenge?"
- V. G. PETERSON, New York City,
On "The Land Tax is the Best Tax"
- ALEXANDER GOLDFINGER, Newark, N. J., On "Evaluation of Henry George by the Modern Economists"
- J. RUPERT MASON, San Francisco,
On "The Grand Procession of Causes and Effects"
- ROBERT CLANCY, New York City,
On "The Emperor's Nightingale"
- SEN. A. W. ROEBUCK, Toronto, Can.,
FRANCIS GOODALE, Boston, Mass., and
JOS. W. THOMPSON, San Francisco, Cal.,
On subjects to be announced.

An informal dinner will open the conference on July 1, followed by roundtable discussions Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Come and get acquainted with your extension leaders.