

National School in Home Study Council

The Henry George School has recently been accepted as a member of the National Home Study Council. This membership will enhance the potentialities and prestige of the correspondence courses offered by the school. Nearly all of the best correspondence schools in the country are members of this council.

A conference was held in New York in October by the Adult Education Association of the United States, of which the Henry George School is a member. Robert Clancy, director, participated as recorder for the work group on "Developing Policy in Adult Education." Dr. Homer Kempfer, director of the National Home Study Council was chairman of the conference.

Katherine Ross of Arden, Delaware, will speak at New York headquarters on November 6 on "The Core of the Henry George Philosophy." On November 20, Lancaster M. Greene will discuss "Haiti—Its Department, Deficiencies and Delights." Two color films will be presented on November 13 in this Friday-Evenings-at-Eight series.

Robert Heilbroner, author of The Worldly Philosophers has consented to speak on the Friday series in the near future. Shaw's "Saint Joan" is the play selected by The Penthouse Players for their next offering on December 18th.

The Speakers Bureau completed six engagements during October under the chairmanship of David Goldstein, S.A.G.E. members will meet with the St. Martin's Church discussion group, in a joint session, on November 23 at 8 P. M., to discuss the goal of adult education.

Monthly faculty meetings are held at the school the first Wednesday of each month at 8:30 P. M. in the director's office. All members are cordially invited to come and talk about "The Teachers' Manual."
