

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY — BY N. O. NELSON.

Page.

- Failure of the let-alone policy — Material advancement — Twentieth century problems — The secret of Mayor Jones' influence — The Toledo Mayor as a business man and politician — His especial mission — A social crusader — His political victories — His honesty of purpose and far-reaching sympathy 17

CHAPTER II.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

- A toiling childhood — Gaining knowledge under difficulties — Exciting days in the oil regions — Hunting in vain for employment — Samuel Miner — A vanished city — Bread and beans — Marriage — The little cottage on the farm — Death enters it — The methods of the Standard Oil Company — Inventions — An awakening — Nailing up the Golden Rule — Golden Rule Park — Trips to Mexico, California, and Europe — Election as Mayor — Reforms attempted and accomplished — The second campaign — The triumph of principle over party..... 37

CHAPTER III.

THE RIGHT TO WORK.

- The next right to be established — The cry of the unemployed — Letters from the unfortunate — The evolution of the tramp — Social injustice causes poverty — The means of employment monopolized — The waste of manhood — Ridpath's "Cry of the Poor" — The industrial battlefield — Effects of idleness upon character — What might be done if all labored 113

CHAPTER IV.

CHARITY OR JUSTICE.

- Low motives for charity — Cost of our philanthropic institutions — The workers are always the poorest — The line at Fleischmann's — Gilman's defense of charity answered — The worker's contempt of charity

	Page.
— Methods of helping the unemployed in Paris, Australia and New Zealand — Increase of homeless citizens — Futility of helping individuals — The unchronicled charities of the poor — The remedy.....	153

CHAPTER V.

THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

The eight-hour day in the oil regions — Long hours of London carmen and cabmen — “The Man with the Hoe” — Eight hours the former workday — Physiological basis for the eight-hour day — The increasing burden of machinery, and its effect on art and life — Proved effects of shorter workdays — Still shorter workday ultimately necessary....	185
--	-----

CHAPTER VI.

THE ORGANIZATION OF LABOR.

What a trade-union is — The good accomplished by labor organizations — Injustice of the wage system — Growth of parasitism — A word about the boycott — Necessity of political action — The ultimate of trade-unionism	205
--	-----

CHAPTER VII.

THE COMPETITIVE SYSTEM A FAILURE.

Industrial peace impossible while competition lasts — Modern society organized warfare — Monopolies inevitable — Injustice of the present wage system — The fallacy of the competitive incentive to progress — Uncertainty of business — The gambler and the merchant at the same game — Apologies for competition — Fair competition an impossibility — Inequalities of birth — Degrading influence of poverty — No necessity for either poverty or competition — Our deplorable ignorance	219
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

TRUSTS.

Monopolists like wreckers — Destruction of whole towns — Lawlessness of Standard Oil Co. — How trusts corrupt politics — Industrial feudalism — Trusts cannot be destroyed or regulated — Public ownership the only remedy — New York Tribune on combination — Advantages of industrial organization — Get all the people inside the trusts — The Co-operative Commonwealth	253
---	-----

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER IX.

SHOULD A CITY OWN ITSELF?

Page.

Evils of private ownership of public franchises — Creates an industrial aristocracy — Society like a human body — Legal aspect of the franchise question — Municipal ownership prevents corruption — Is more economical — Success of municipal ownership in England — Electric light statistics — Public markets, baths, parks, theatres, etc. — Objections answered — Reforms in New Zealand and Glasgow — Civic patriotism — Improvement of citizenship — The children of the slums — The ideals of democracy 279

CHAPTER X.

CO-OPERATION AND PROFIT-SHARING — BY N. O. NELSON.

The co-operative principle — Co-operation in the United States — Co-operation in Great Britain — Low salaries paid — Extent and progress of the societies — Providing homes — Raising their own produce — Advantages of the cash system — Protection against adulteration — Method of procedure — Origin and inception of the movement — Attitude toward education — Attitude regarding the land — The movement makes for public ownership — A matter of experience, adjustment and good faith — The co-operative press — Profit-sharing..... 323

CHAPTER XI.

PROGRESS AND POLITICS.

Significance of Toledo election — Corrupt business the cause of corrupt politics — What a business men's government means — Party machines should be abolished — Neither party has a moral issue — Politicians evade real issues — How to prevent bossism — The duty of breaking up party fetich worship — The mission of America..... 357

CHAPTER XII.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

Edwin Markham's creed — The tyrannical rule of gold — Is the teaching of Christ practicable in business? — Putting the Golden Rule into practice — The failure of success — The communism of the early Christians — The tangle wherein we are all caught — Social effects of religious revivals — The prayer of self — Why people don't go to church — Force cannot reform people — No excuse for militarism — The victories of love 395

CHAPTER XIII.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN.

Page.

How the new inventions make for brotherhood — Labor organizations contribute to brotherhood — All — from highest to lowest — people — The race problem — Equal rights of black, white, brown and yellow — Peace and fellow-love the solution — A plea to the men of the South — True greatness among humble men — The workers not intrinsically more moral than the idlers — Real education needed — Always believed in people — An economic system that denies liberty — The real incentive for work — The ideal of the common good — Our common responsibility — Preaching Christianity and practicing Paganism — More thoughtless than heartless — Service for service the only just recompense — No immediate panacea — The curse of private property — America's task — The movement onward and upward.....	439
--	-----