GERMAN INTEREST AWAKENED

GREETINGS TELEGRAMS and letters expressing good wishes for the success of the Conference were received from or on behalf of the President of the Federal German Republic, Dr. Heuss, the Federal Minister of Agriculture, etc., Dr. Lübke, and the President of the Federal Labour Court, Prof. Nipperdey. Dr. Hesberg, the president of the Bundestag committee for housing, land and building laws and secretary of the Union of Rhenish landlords, regretted that illness prevented his attendance. Another parliamentarian, Dr. Herbert Czaja, wrote that the subjects being discussed were of great interest to him.

The Union of Taxpayers, at Stuttgart, and the Union of Private Mortgage Banks, at Bonn, notified their branches of the Conference. The Director of the Institute for World Economy at the University of Kiel thought the programme was "extraordinarily interesting" and
