

403 West 147th Street,
New York City.

June 13, 1934.

Professor Oscar H. Geiger
Henry George School of Social Science
211 West 79th Street
New York City.

My dear Professor Geiger:

I want to say that being a Colored man, subjected to all the social discrimination, arising from social ignorance, it was a great revelation to be in the company and heavenly spirit of fellow disciples of Henry George on the occasion of the dinner June 7th.

I know that those who have imbibed the teaching of Henry George are different from others, but I did not expect to meet upon this earth such a unanimous spirit of genuine good-will and deference toward one-another as assembled on that occasion.

I think that I am a graduate of the school of social philosophy of Henry George, having read several times his three main books, but for genuine spiritual companionship and ability to teach others I long to enroll myself as a student in your school, and shall do so at the first opportunity.

Very sincerely,

Eugene McIntosh