

---

Index

- Abramson, Victor, 155 n.
- Adams, John Quincy, 212, 224; opposed to pure democracy, 16-17; and the election of 1824, 65, 207, 214
- Adenauer, Konrad, 272
- Advisory Council on Social Security Financing: on effects of inflation, 254
- Africa: federation of native states in, 281
- Agricultural price support program: cost of, 256; principle of, theoretically applied to industry, 185-186
- Algeria: American sympathy for rebels in, 126
- Altgeld, John Peter, 108
- Amendments, Constitution of the United States: Fifth, designed to limit power of central government, 79; Tenth, insures reserved powers of the States, 85; Eleventh, connection with Interposition, 242; Twelfth, 65; Thirteenth, 76, ratification of, 78-79; Fourteenth, undermines federal structure, 29, proposed to secure
- Amendments (cont.)
- Negro suffrage and civil rights, 79, approved by Congress, 80, three vindictive sections of, 81, unrelated and transitory issues in, 81, nullifies Bill of Rights, 87, adoption procedure, 88-89, rejected by Southern States, 89, ratified by Southern Reconstruction Legislatures, 90, increase in cases under after 1896, 97, due process clause in, 98, used in business interests, 106, legislative action needed to enforce, 237-238; Fifteenth, 76-77, ratified by Southern Reconstruction Legislatures, 92; Sixteenth, text of, 101, an attack on State sovereignty, 101, leads to Federal subsidies, 102, financed colonial operations, 118; Seventeenth, 21, 118; Nineteenth, 21; Twenty-first, 149
- American Bar Association House of Delegates: on trend of Supreme Court decisions, 178
- American politics: ideological divisions in, after 1896, 97-98
- Americans for Democratic Action:

- Americans (cont.)
 hold Rousseau's concept of the general will, 52
- American society: strongly competitive, 14
- American system of government: clearly anti-socialist, 55
- Amish farmers: and collection of social security taxes, 168
- "Amlib," American liberalism: degrades freedom by equating it with security, 304
- Anderson, John M., 73 n.
- Anderson, Robert B., 269
- Anti-trust laws, 13
- Aristotle, 297 n.; on social nature of man, 34; on equality of men, 57
- Arthur, Chester A., 108
- Associated Press: Comment on connection of defense spending and stable stock market, 193
- Atomic war: results of, 284
- Attlee, Clement: criticized American Constitution, 162
- Aurelius, Marcus, 58
- "Availability of Information from Federal Departments and Agencies": evidence of official pressure on the reporting of governmental activities, 196
- Babeuf, François Émile, early communist, 54
- Balance of power: upset by post Civil War amendments, 77-78
- Barkley, Alben: opposition to, in South in 1948, 216
- Bartkus v. Illinois*: demonstration of Court attitude favorable to federalism, 246, 237 n.
- Beard, Charles A., 87 n., 98 n., 117 n.; states that the United States is not a democracy, 17; comment on States' loss of control over property, 98
- Benelux, 273
- Beveridge, Albert J., 223 n., 243 n.; on influence of Rousseau, 50
- Bill of Rights: designed to limit power of the majority, 17; demanded as condition for ratification of the Constitution, 17-18
- Bingham, John A.: explanation of Section 1, Fourteenth Amendment, 86; alleged violation of the Eighth Amendment, 87
- Bismarck, Otto von: helped by French aggression, 181
- Blaine, James G., 224 n.
- Bowers, Claude G., 17 n., 50 n., 79 n.; quoted on Thaddeus Stevens, 78; view of Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions, 244 n.
- Brandeis, Louis D.: comment on separation of powers, 246
- Bricker Amendment, 178, 178 n.
- Brooke, Rupert, quoted, 264
- Brown, Dr. James, 65 n.
- Brown v. Board of Education*: led to attack on the Supreme Court, 234
- Bryan, William Jennings: made demagogic appeal to general will above State authority, 107; appealed to farmers and industrial workers, 109; reasons for defeat of, 110; accomplishments of, 111; opposed to war, 117
- Bryce, James, 67 n., 106 n., 233 n.; on nominating conventions, 66; on the Supreme Court, 233
- Budget Bureau, 187
- Buonarroti, Filippo M., early communist, 54
- Bureaucracy: adaptable to capitalism or proletarianism, 112; assumed to prevent abuse of power, 113; expanded by war, 116, 119, 160; increased under F. D. Roosevelt, 150, 164
- Burgess, John W., 101 n., 119 n.; on Sixteenth Amendment, 101
- Burke, Edmund, 42, 42 n.

- Burr, Aaron: Jefferson's comment on conspiracy of, 65
- Byrd, Harry, United States Senator: quoted on "back door spending," 132; opposed Adlai Stevenson, 219
- Byrd-Smith Bill: purpose of, 178
- Calhoun, John C., 74, 107, 211; 68 n., 73 n.; power of taxation described as basis of dominance, 57; opposed nominating conventions, 67; political theorist, not practical politician, 68; compared to Jackson, 68; favored federalism, 68; effort to unite South and West, 69; on tariff of 1828, 71; opposed secession, 72; on majority power, 73, 74; on ascendancy of the Constitution, 73; on Interposition, 73, 241; on State sovereignty, 73, 74; and election of 1824, 207-208
- Canada: example of federalism, 13
- Cardozo, Benjamin, 101 n.
- Catlin, George, 54 n.
- Chambers, William N., 217 n.
- Charnwood, Lord, 150 n.
- Chase, Salmon P., 195
- Chinard, Gilbert, 65 n.
- Chisholm v. Georgia*: ruled that a State could be sued by a citizen of another State, 242
- Church and State, balance between, 300
- Churchill, Winston, 146
- Church organizations: generally conform to State divisions, 262
- Cicero: Quoted, on law, 297
- Civil War, American, ix, x, xxiii, xxiv, 61, 66, 78, 102, 248; caused by opposing interpretations of government, 70; factors uniting South in, 70-71; effect of, on federal structure, 75, 104, 116
- Clark, J. Reuben, 134 n.
- Clay, Henry, 212, 214
- Cleveland, Grover, 106, 108
- Coal and Steel Community, 272
- Colonialism: American opposition to in Ireland and Korea, 137; liquidation of, led to increased federalism, 279
- Commager, Henry Steele, 80 n., 175 n., 224 n.
- Commodity Credit Corporation: guarantees price for indisposable surplus, 185
- Common Law: operates in behalf of freedom, 295
- Common Market: example of federal trend, 3-4, 272; and Commission of Nine, 274; opposing effect of political and economic factors in, 275; plan for, compared to the Confederation of American States, 275; French dependencies included in, 276; reunion of Germany unfavorable to, 277; continued evolution towards federalism doubtful, 278
- Common Market Treaty, 271
- Communist Clubs: contemporary counterpart of Jacobin Clubs, favor Russia, 52
- Communist dogma: freedom can be forced, 36
- Communist Manifesto*, 52
- Conference of State Chief Justices: criticized Supreme Court trend away from federalism, 178
- Congress, United States: powerful body, 9; and enforcement clause of Thirteenth and Fourteenth Amendments, 77; opposition to cost of imperialism in, reduced control of over military expenditures, 141
- Congressional committees: as check on executive power, 8
- Congressional Manifesto on Brown v. Board of Education, 234

- Congress of the Confederation: isolationist policy stated by, 133
- Conrad, Joseph, quoted, 289
- Constitutional Convention: chief problems before, 26–27; union, not nationalism, chief objective, 48; no mention of Rousseau in, 49
- Constitution of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 4 n.
- Constitution of the United States: approved by DeTocqueville, 5; separation and balance of powers in, 6; reserved powers of States in, 10; opposed to social prestige, 10; opposed to concentration of religious power, 10; hostile to economic monopoly, 11; road blocks to democracy in, 18, 27; rejects Rousseau's concept of the general will, 58; checks on majority will, 59; and post-Civil War amendments, 77; protection of life, liberty, and property a local function under, 84; recognized as barrier by European socialists, 162; definition of judicial power in, 229–230; last bulwark of individual liberty, 295. See also Amendments, Congress, Federalism, Government, Senate, Supreme Court
- Consultative Assembly of Common Market, 274–275
- Corwin, Edward S., 236 n.; on increase of cases after 1896 under Fourteenth Amendment, 97
- Council of Economic Advisers, 172
- Council of Europe, 272
- Council of Ministers, executive power for the Common Market, 274
- Council of State Government, medium for inter-State cooperation, 268
- Court-packing Plan, 156–157
- Cowell, F. R., 298 n.
- “Coxey's army”: dramatized plight of unemployed, 108
- Cramton, Roger C., 232 n.
- Craven, Avery, 73
- Crawford, William H.: and the election of 1824, 207, 209, 210, 211, 212 n.
- Crosskey, William W., 11 n.
- “Cross of Gold” speech, quoted, 104
- Dartmouth College Case*: struck down an Act of the New Hampshire Legislature, 70, 86
- Debs, Eugene V., 108
- Declaration of Independence, 48: general acceptance of statements of equality in, 26; recognizes absolutes, 293
- Defense: unlimited funds supplied for, 186; cost of, not cut below military estimates, 186; expenditures for, used as political lever, 193–194; necessity for leads to propaganda, 194; expenditures for, maintained by build-up of Cold War, 195. See also Military Expenditures
- DeGaulle, Charles, 277
- DeGrazia, Alfred, 261 n.
- DeJouvenel, Bertrand, 43 n., 298 n.
- Democracy: does not imply equality, 13; implies centralization of American government, 14; must be representative, 15; needs free elections and no constitutional restrictions, 15; distinction between social and political, 25–26; social, defined as a religious conception, 26; social, fortified by the Constitution, 27; evidence of, in States, 61; localized under American system, 61; communism called only complete, 115; transition from, to dictatorship, 147

- Democratic Clubs: continuation of Jacobin Clubs, 51
- Democratic Convention of 1948: withdrawal of Dixiecrat delegates, 215
- Democratic Party: split in, 70, 97, 200; decline of, after Civil War, 108
- Dennis v. United States*, Vinson opinion quoted, 236
- Department of Agriculture: increased employment in, 185
- Department of Defense: not to blame for over expenditure for military supplies, 187
- Department of Labor: certifies unemployment for channeling of defense contracts, 195
- Djilas, Milovan, 254–55 n.
- DeTocqueville, Alexis, 301, 6 n.; quoted on Constitution of the United States, 5; comment on lack of a great city in the United States, 28–29; anticipated that the Constitution would become a dead letter, 138
- Dewey, John: and the positivist school of philosophy, 294
- Dewey, Thomas E., 210, 215
- Dictatorship: disguised as democracy, xxv; transition to, from democracy, 147
- Dietze, Professor Gottfried, 100 n.
- District of Columbia: disfranchisement in, 21
- Dixiecrat movement, 215
- Dred Scott Case, 244–245
- Dulles, John Foster: quoted as stating the United States did not believe in neutrality, 125; this view disapproved by President Eisenhower, 127
- Dunham, Allison, 255 n.
- Eaton, Peggy, 68
- “Economic Bill of Rights”: proclaimed by F. D. Roosevelt, 170; “Economic Bill of Rights” (cont.) defy definition, 171; in campaign of 1944, 171; no strong public support for, 172; increased tax burden, 191; results of attempts to secure, 252
- Education: a field reserved to States, 238; can be abandoned by a State, 239; decentralization of, a phase of federalism, 257–258; value of small college, 258; progress under State control, 259; participation of central government in, 259; religious support to localism of, 260; increase in church directed, 260
- Egypt: union with Syria step toward federated Arab Republic, 281
- Eisenhower, Dwight D., 197, 209, 216 n.; disowned Dulles opposition to neutrality, 127; on necessity for military expenditures, 187; and Little Rock, 216, 220; Southern States carried by in 1952 and 1956, 219; “Modern Republicanism” of unpopular in South, 219; urged return of responsibility to States, 268
- Elections: of 1824, 65, 66, 206, 207, 210, 211; of 1896, 108, 109; of 1936, 156, 210; of 1938, 159; of 1948, 91–92, 209, 214, 216; of 1952, 219, 225; of 1956, 208, 223
- Electoral College: undemocratic, 21; basic principles of, 204; effect of population changes on, 204–205; total membership of, 205; original choice of, 209; connection with political parties, 209–210; independent votes in, 210; effect of delayed tabulation of vote for, 219; no popular demand for revision of, 222; election of, by districts, 223; unimportance of electors chosen, 223; popular and electoral vote

- Electoral College (cont.)
 under, 223, 224; influence of political boss under, 224; failure to revise not due to apathy, 226, 227
 "Empire": defined and illustrated, 122; characteristics of, 122-123; based on conquest, 123; and military alliances, 123; hostile to neutrality, 125; discourages debate over foreign policy, 125; claimed benefits of, 125; extension of, by the United States stationary, 129
- Employment: now considered responsibility of the national government, 182-183, 189-190; affected by consumer demands, 181; maintained by defense production, 186, 190, 198; increased cost of fringe benefits, 190; political pressure of, 191; pressure on management, 191; maintenance of full, incompatible with free market, 191; adversely affected by present national policies, 255; fluctuation of, under profit-and-loss system, 255
- Employment Act of 1946, 172-173
- Erhard, Ludwig: connection with the free market, 271 n.; comment on German genius, 271 n.
- Euratom Treaties: pool ownership of fissionable materials, 272
- European Economic Community: objective of, elimination of trade restrictions, 273
- European Payments Union, 272
- Executive: checks on power of, 7; independence of, 7; power of veto undemocratic, 20. See also President
- Faubus, Orval, 143
- Farley, James A., 158-159, 160 n.
- "Federal": misleading use of term, 24
- Federal Aid to Education: described as anti-federal, 25
- "Federal government": inaccurate as descriptive term referring to general government, 24
- Federalism: combines order and freedom, xxiii; an experimental system, xxiv; agent of peaceful coexistence, xxv; involves dispersion of power, 1, 6, 60, 283; needs a national capital, 2; needs a written constitution, 2; needs a supreme court, 2; provides flexibility, 3; tends toward centralization in times of stress, 3, 113, 142; deficiencies of, 4-5; control of local affairs under, 5; and the Senate, 9; movement away from original concept of, 29-30, 76, 84, 96, 102, 283; essence of, in sovereignty of constituent parts, 60; does not discourage democratic government in the States, 60; against plutocracy, 94-95; deterrent to dictatorship, 112; not adaptable to empire, 128; and the New Deal, 153; not popular in Europe, 163; less emphasized in social science teaching, 174; principle of, favored by the South, 220; factors operating to maintain, 251-252; permanence of institutions under, 257; attrition, of, by default, 266; relieves tensions of excessive nationalism, 287; world benefits from, 287; impediment to majority will, 289-290; prevents prostitution of freedom, 306
- Federalist Papers*, 32, 35, 48, 84, 205, 278, 285, 301, 11 n., 17 n., 208 n., 241 n., 285 n.
- Federal principle: weakened by war, 103
- Federal Trade Commission, 11
- Federal Union: not a political democracy, 13

- Federation of the West Indies, 280
- Ferrand, Max, 22 n., 27 n., 63 n., 64 n., 133 n., 302 n.
- Feurbach, Ludwig, 153 n.
- Field, Stephen J.: dissents from majority decision in Slaughterhouse cases, 96
- Flack, Horace E., 81 n.
- Fletcher v. Peck*: enlarged national power at State expense, 70
- Foreign Policy: reveals character of the government, 131; and the Constitution, 131, 132; originally isolationist, 133; conformity of, to public opinion in a democracy, 137-138; no longer isolationist, 138; needs armed force to sustain, 140; and financial support, 140-141. See also Imperialism, Isolationism
- Founding Fathers: sought division of governmental power, 6; opposed to democratic political system, 16; devised balanced political structure, 31; recognized need for coercive powers, 32; influenced by John Locke, 39; made States dominant in the amendment procedure, 88; put army under civilian control, 139; relied on self-restraint taught by the church, 300-301
- Four Freedoms: outline of, 164-165; difference between first two and last two, 166; contradictory as governmental responsibility, 167; distinction between "freedom from" and "freedom for," 168; continued reference to, 169; world-wide hope for, 170, quotation from, 305
- Frankfurter, Felix: opinion on Bartkus v. Illinois, 247
- Franklin, Benjamin, 302
- Frazer, James, 300 n.
- Freedman's Bureau: example of ex-
- Freedman's Bureau (cont.)
tension of bureaucracy as result of war, 116
- Freedom: distinct from liberty, 290-291, 305; absence of external restraint, 291-292
- Free Enterprise, 183-184
- Free Silver: panacea for agrarian unrest, 108
- Gallatin, Albert, 212, 212 n.
- Gardiner, S. R., 249 n.
- Garrett, Garet, 161 n.
- "General Government": term preferred to "central" or "federal," 24
- "General Will": Rousseau's theory of, 41; criticism of concept, 43-44; cannot be localized, 51, 56; tends to elevate the unscrupulous, 57-58; statesmen as spokesmen for, 147; must be formulated by the executive, 179; and integration, 215
- Genêt, Edmond C., 41, 50, 51, 180
- Georgia v. Stanton*: refused opinion on Reconstruction Act of 1867, 90
- German Bundesrepublik: federal republic promoted by the United States, 270
- German Empire: federation of monarchies, 2
- "Gilden Age": political consequences of, 94
- Glover, Joshua: runaway slave freed by abolitionists, 245
- Göring, Hermann, 188
- Government, American system of: concerned with order and freedom, xxiii; managerial form of, as substitute for federalism, xxv; union of sovereign States, 2, 10; reconciliation of freedom and discipline in, 2; balanced authority in, 10; supervisory rather than directive, 13; general purpose of,

- Government (cont.)
 13; subsidies by encroach on voluntary action, 40; effect of intervention by, 40. See also Democracy, Federalism
- Governmental Research Association: coordinates civic organization, 268
- Grant, Ulysses S., 94, 91 n.
- Great Britain: reform bills forward political democracy in, 23; no supreme court in, 23; not a member of the Common Market, 275
- Great Depression: stimulus to democratic action, 122
- Greek Cypriots: American sympathy for, 126
- Guffey-Vinson Bill, for regulation of coal industry, 156
- Hamilton, Alexander, 69, 100, 278, 288, 298; recognizes need for political contracts, 35; early American nationalist, 48; great exponent of centralization, 63, 65; opposed to federalism and democracy, 63-64; preferred power in the executive branch, 63; advocated life term Senators, 64; opposed to concept of general will, 64; comment on election of President by the House of Representatives, 205; defense of electoral system, 209-210; necessity for State consent cited by, 241; quoted in support of common market, 278
- Hamilton, Edith, 296 n.
- Harrison, Benjamin, 224
- Hawaii: statehood of, 128-129
- Hayes, Rutherford, 108, 224
- Hazard, John N., 4 n.
- Hearst, William Randolph: aided imperialism, 116
- Hebrew prophets: sought to make law conform to spiritual values, 297
- Hennings, Thomas C., 198 n.
- Henry, Patrick, 17, 292, 296
- Hibben, Paxton, 107 n.
- Hill, Samuel B., 156
- Hitler, Adolf: thoroughgoing socialist, 56; favored war to centralize power, 113; approved army system of German Republic, 143; opposed State authority, 143; on liberty of individuals, 144; recognized that national taxation led to loss of political rights, 144; considered himself the embodiment of the general will, 144; misjudged coming events, 147
- Holmes, Justice Oliver Wendell, 236, 294
- Hoover, Herbert, 122, 122 n.
- Hoover Commission on Organization: found military waste, 187
- Hopkins, Harry, 200
- House of Lords: reduction of powers of, 22
- Hughes, Charles Evans, 210, 96 n.; comment on Slaughterhouse Cases, 96
- Humphrey-Langer Bill: proposes election of President by direct vote of the people, 228
- Immigration: obscured issue between centralization and federalism, 99-100
- "Imperial": use of term defined, 122
- Imperialism: strengthened by national pride, 144. See also Foreign policy, Isolationism
- India: criticized for neutrality, 124
- Indian wars: Increased strength of central government, 116
- Industrialism: rise of, 95; freedom from government control, 95; caused political shift, 104; hampered by State governments, 105-106

- Intercontinental missiles: effect of, on Cold War, 198
- Integration: token, may solve school issue, 246
- Interposition: foreshadowed by Madison, 18; revival of, 101; early use of, 240; inherent in federal form of government, 240; defined, 240; uses of, 241; supported by Calhoun, 241; and Alien and Sedition Acts, 242; in case of Chisholm v. Georgia, 242; in Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions, 243; invoked against Dred Scott Decision, 243; is not nullification, 244; use in Wisconsin, 245; possible outcomes from, 246
- Isolationism: early American foreign policy, 132; confirmed by Monroe Doctrine, 134; demanded recognition of de facto government, 134–135; corollary to strict neutrality, 136; no longer dominates foreign policy of the United States, 137–138; shift from, causes increased military expenditure, 140
- Jackson, Andrew, 71, 107, 111, 211, 224; use of party name, “Democrat,” 66; favored nominating conventions, 66; antagonism to Calhoun, 67; favored nationalistic democracy, 68; vacillation on tariff of 1828, 71–72; and Nullification, 72; and election of 1824, 207; comment on Marshall, 233
- Jacobin Clubs: organized in the United States in support of Genêt, 50; favored Jefferson, 50; opposed to American nationalism, 51
- Jacobinism, 180
- James, Joseph B., 81 n.
- James, Marquis, 68 n., 212 n., 217 n.; on the Jackson era, 209; on deal between Clay and Adams, 213
- Jefferson, Thomas, 57, 106, 132, 134, 174, 65 n.; French influence on Declaration of Independence, 48; connection with Jacobin Clubs, 52; authentic liberalism of, 64; and political democracy, 66; favored federalism, 67; favored recognition of de facto government, 135; drafted Kentucky Resolution of Interposition, 243
- Johnson, Andrew, 76; approved Ten Per Cent Plan, 79; attacked by Sumner, 81; use of veto, 81; Reconstruction Act, 90; impeachment of, 90–92
- Joint Committee on Reconstruction: organization and powers of, 81
- Joint Economic Committee, 172–173
- Jones, Judge Walter B.: vote for in election of 1956, 210
- Judiciary Committee of the Senate: criticism of Court-packing bill, 158–159
- Justice: ethical aim of, in Constitution of the United States, 13
- Kapital, Das*, 53
- Kelf-Cohen, R., 55 n.
- Kelly, Alfred H., quoted, 88
- Kent, Frank R., 203 n.
- Kentucky Resolution of Interposition, 243
- Khrushchev, Nikolai, 146
- Kilpatrick, James J., 235 n., 242 n.
- Kimmel, Lewis A., 173 n.
- King’s Court of Star Chamber: example of government by court decree, 249
- Korean War: further promotion of American imperial practice, 123

- Labor Party, Great Britain: eliminated impediments to political democracy, 55
- Laissez-faire: increase in after the Civil War, 81
- Landon, Alfred: 156
- Laski, Harold: felt federalism to be obsolescent, 282
- League of Nations, 136, 122 n.
- Leckrone, Walter, Editor of Indianapolis Times, xxvi; criticizes collection of Social Security taxes, 168
- Leeward Islands, 280–281
- Lenin, V. I., 167, 112 n., 167 n.; views on religion, 14; on uses of bureaucracy, 112; on Communism and democracy, 115
- Leoni, Bruno, quoted from The Actuality of Federalism, 278
- Liberty: based on self-control, 291–292; condition of the mind, not the body, 292; religious association with, 293, 294
- Lincoln, Abraham, 102, 201; held that Southern States had never left the Union, 179; on control of privilege, 104; idea of democracy, 150
- Little Rock, Ark.; intervention in, 216, 220
- Locke, John: influence on Founding Fathers, 39
- Louisiana Purchase, 67
- Luehman, General Arno, Director of the Office of Information Services, Department of the Air Force: quoted on release of information, 197
- Lyon, Leverett, 155 n.
- McClellan Committee: found control of unions centralizing, 262
- McCullough v. Maryland*: declared State could not tax an agency of the central government, 70
- Machiavelli, Niccolò, 182, 182 n.
- McKinley, William, criticized by T. R. Roosevelt, 117
- Madison, James, 39, 48, 62, 134, 216, 6 n., 32 n.; criticism of pure democracy, 17; promised Bill of Rights, 19; on need for strong government, 27; on balance between liberty and freedom, 32; on division of powers of government, 32; authentic liberalism of, 64; approved local control of life, liberty, and property, 84; on reserved powers of the States, 169; on suppression of information, 196; drafted Virginia Resolutions of Interposition, 243; praise of federal system quoted, 284; on value of self-restraint, 301
- Mahan, Alfred Thayer, 116
- Maine, Sir Henry S., 300 n.
- Malaya, Federation of: federal features of, 279
- “Manifest Destiny,” used to downgrade federalism, 112
- Mann, W. W., Mayor of Little Rock, Ark., 216 n.
- Marbury v. Madison*: established right of court to nullify an act of Congress, 39
- Marshall, John, 70, 100, 233, 307; early American nationalist, 48, 49; developed implied powers to strengthen central government, 69; developed cleavage between States rights and nationalistic democracy, 69; important nationalistic decisions of, 69–70; did not hold State government superfluous, 70; effect of War of 1812 on decisions by, 115
- Marx, Karl, 52, 55, 54 n.
- Marxism, 59, 254–255 n.; description of basic principles, 54–55; opposed to cult of the individual, 146

- Mayflower Compact: example of a social contract, 35
- Mein Kampf*, 142
- Mexican War: led to further centralization, 115–116
- Military expenditures: vast sums for, 187; maintain inflationary prosperity, 188; annual budget figures for, 188. See also Defense
- Miller, Samuel F.: opinion in Slaughterhouse Cases quoted, 96
- Monroe, James, 134–135, 211
- Monroe Doctrine: confirmed and strengthened isolationism, 134; dependent on physical power of the United States, 135; judicious bilateral proposal, 135
- Montesquieu, Charles Louis, 7, 298
- Morelli, early communist, 53
- Morison, Samuel Eliot, 80 n., 82 n., 224 n.
- Morris, Gouverneur, 136 n.
- Moss, John E., 197, 197 n.
- Mundt-Coudert: proposed Amendment prescribing electors be chosen by districts, 225; lacks popular support, 228
- Myrdal, Gunnar: cited by Supreme Court, 237
- Napoleon Bonaparte: embodiment of the “general will,” 44
- Napoleon III, 181
- National conventions: controlled behind scenes, 202
- National debt: present level and interest on, 255–256
- NATO, 126–127, 278
- Nelson, Steve: court ruling in case of, 246
- Neutrality: opposed to collective security, 136; American, given up reluctantly, 136
- Nevins, Allan, 118 n.
- New Deal: strengthened the power New Deal (cont.)
and prestige of the general government, 173
- New England town meeting: almost pure democracy of, 47
- Nixon, Richard: no comment by, on incipient federalism in Africa, 281 n.
- “Nordic Council”: may become a Scandinavian Federation, 282
- Nourse, Edwin G., 173 n.
- NRA: step in totalitarian development of American thinking, 154
- Nullification: doctrine of reaffirmed, 75
- Orwell, George, quoted, 303
- Organization of European Economic Cooperation, 272
- Paine, Thomas, 48; disciple of Rousseau, 47
- Panama Canal: and revolt in Colombia, 119
- Palmer, John M.: nominated by Democratic rump convention in 1896, 109, 110
- Parker, Alton B., 210
- Parliamentary government: contrasted with American system, 7
- Parliamentary socialist: contrasted to fascist, 55
- Paternalism: threat to federal system, 13
- Paul, St., quoted, 292
- Penn, William, 12
- Philippine Insurrection, 118
- Philippine Republic: unitary not federal, 279
- Philippines: freed by United States, 128
- Pinckney, Charles: quoted on incompatibility of active foreign policy and federal system, 133
- Plato: held that constant tendency of democracy is toward dictatorship, 58

- Pollock, Sir Frederick, 35 n.; repudiates theory of social contract, 35
- Populist party: in election of 1892, 108
- Pound, Roscoe, xxvi, 297, 299, 111 n.
- Precinct politics: significance of, 202
- President, American: large authority in foreign policy, 139; civilian head of the armed forces, 139; tendency to nominate generals for, 139-140; controls overseas military commitments, 141. See also Executive
- Presidential Election: machinery of defended from standpoint of federalism, 204-205; effect of third candidate on, 206
- Prince Edward County, Virginia: eliminated appropriations for public schools, 239 n.
- Privilege: shift of, from one group to another, 105
- Propaganda agencies: increase in control of release of information, 195-196
- Puerto Rico: dominion status of, 128
- Pullman Strike, 108
- Pusey, Merlo J., 158 n.
- Randolph, Edmund: opposed to democracy, 27
- Randolph, John, 72
- Reconstruction Act of 1867: purpose and provisions of, 89
- Reed, John: acceptance of Rousseau's theory of internationalism, 42
- Religion: power of, in American system, 14, 300-302; associated with liberty, 295
- Republican Party (Jeffersonian): based on Jacobin Clubs, 50
- Republican Party: influence on of industrialism, 94, 105; allegiance to laissez-faire capitalism, 97; indifferent to federalism, 105; not necessarily gains by Democratic split, 221
- Republicans, Radical: oppose admission of Southern States, 80-81; Stevens' plan to retain power of, 90; decline of, 93-94
- Reston, James: comment on growing tendency to manage news, 196-197
- Revenue Collection Act, 74
- "Robber Barons," 94, 107
- Robespierre, Maximilien, 45, 49, 50, 166, 168
- Roman Catholic Church: education under, 260
- Rome: needed enmity of Carthage, 181
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 110, 120, 149, 155, 157-158, 164, 169, 173, 305; veto of financial legislation by, 20; called for disarmament of Germany, 146; approval of Stalin, 146; misjudged coming events, 147; definition of democracy, 150; belief in executive power, 151, 154; philosophy of government, 151; economic objective described, 152-153; no purpose to interfere with State government, 154; and NRA, 155; and the Supreme Court, 157, 158, 164; intervention in primaries, 159; "drafted" for third term, 160; repudiated idea of intervention in Europe, 165; and the Four Freedoms, 164-171, 304; and Rousseau, 166; and Economic Bill of Rights, 170-172, 252; question of permanence of work of, 180
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 210, 148 n.; stimulated imperialism, 116; hoped for war with Great Britain,

- Roosevelt, Theodore (cont.)
 117; interpretation of Monroe Doctrine by, 117
 "Roosevelt Revolution": defined as turn from Jefferson and Madison to Rousseau and Marx, 174
 Root, Elihu: quoted on weaknesses of States, 267
 Rousseau, Jean Jacques: 36, 45, 47, 49, 51, 55, 58, 60, 61, 64, 78, 81, 96, 100, 114, 147, 174, 179, 215, 236, 305, 307, 43 n., 45 n.; believer in complete political democracy, 33; antithesis of Madison, 32; and concept of the "general will," 33, 38, 41, 43-44; Contrat Social, totalitarian, 36; restraint of individual liberty needed to insure civil liberty, 37; denies American distinction between society and state, 39. See also Social Contract
 Russia. See Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
- Satterthwaite, Joseph C.: comment on development of federalism in Africa, 281 n.
 Scott, James B., 267 n.
 SEATO: unpopular in the United States, 126
 Segregation: widely established after the Civil War, 234
 Senate, United States: federal basis of government, 10; undemocratic in character, 21; rejected Santo Domingo Treaty, 118; refused to act on court-packing bill, 158
 Seniority rule: undemocratic, 21
 Service State: federalism subordinated to, 149; term used in preference to Welfare State, 164-180; international level in Charter of the United Nations, 175; growing skepticism toward, 257
- Seward, William: reluctantly proclaimed ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment, 91; on annexation of Midway Islands, 116
 Sherman, John, 224 n.
 Shub, David, 14 n.
Slaughterhouse Cases: Court decision that Fourteenth Amendment not of general application, 96
 Slavery: considered secondary cause of Civil War, 69
 Social Contract: characteristics of, 34-35; exchange of liberty for freedom, 36; idea of opposed to the American Constitution, 140
Social Contract, 33, 41, 46 n. See also Rousseau
 Socialists; believe that socialism can triumph peaceably, 56
 Social Security: forcible collection of taxes for, 168; effect on inflation, 253; cost to employers, 254-255
 Society: relationship to state, 39
 Soil bank: purpose to pay farmers not to produce, 185
 South Carolina Nullification Convention, 72, 74
 Sovereignty: divided and limited in American form of government, 39
 Spanish-American War: established the United States as a world power, 117
 Sparkman, John J.: vice-presidential candidate in 1952, 219
 Spengler, Oswald: quoted on relation of law and a written constitution, 299
Sputniks: re-stimulated cold war economy, 194, 195
 Stalin, Josef, 114; embodiment of the general will of Soviet Russia, 145-146; misjudged coming events, 147
 States: position in American federal

- States (cont.)
 system, 25; cultural and emotional units, 264
- States Rights: primary cause of the Civil War, 71; upheld by Calhoun 73; resurgence caused by segregation issue, 220; preferred by many to democracy, 227-228; and Interposition, 240; and control of public education, 240; asserted in Tenth Amendment, 241; present belief in, 248, 265
- States Rights Democrats: not an attempt to establish a third party in 1948, 215
- Stevens, Thaddeus, 82, 96, 307; political philosopher in the tradition of Rousseau, 78; responsible for change in balance of power after the Civil War, 78; opposed to admission of Southern States under Ten Per Cent Plan, 79; sought ascendancy of Republican Party, 80; did not disclose full purpose of Fourteenth Amendment, 88; final appraisal of, 91-92; effect of his death on Radical Republican movement, 93
- Stevenson, Adlai, 210, 219
- Stock market: stability of dependent on defense expenditure, 192
- Suetonius, 308 n.
- Suez Canal incident, 126, 137
- Sumner, Charles: Stevens' henchman in Senate, 81
- Sullivan, Mark, 107 n.
- Supreme Court, United States: and judicial review, 9, 100; undemocratic in composition and power, 19; and the Fourteenth Amendment, 95, 99, 102; hostile to regulation of industry, 96; distinction between property rights and human rights, 99; weakened authority of State governments, 100; invalidated NRA, AAA, Supreme Court (cont.)
 and the Guffy-Vinson Act, 156, could return to strict interpretation of the Constitution, 178; and segregation, 220; decisions should accord with basic principles of the Constitution, 229; weaker in a democracy than in a federal union, 230-231; prestige lowered, 231; no authority to legislate, 232; "modern" authority relied on in Brown v. Board of Education, 237; early decision favored "separate but equal," 238; recent decisions of, 246-247; defense of individual liberty by, 295
- Suthon, Walter J., Jr.: states secondary role of Congress in amendment of the Constitution, 89
- Swisher, Carl B., 197 n.
- Swiss Confederation: union of people of diversity, 3 n.
- Taft, Robert A., 212
- Taft, William Howard, 102, 119
- Talleyrand, H., 78; and the American Jacobin Clubs, 50
- Talmon, J. L., 54 n.
- Tammany Hall: evolved from Jacobin Clubs, 51
- Tansill, Charles C., 223
- Tariff of 1828, 71, 74
- Ten Per Cent Plan, 79-80
- Texas v. White*: confirmed theory of indestructibility of the Union, 76
- Thucydides, 124
- Thurmond, Strom: and the election of 1948, 210, 215, 216
- Tito, Marshal, 124
- Toynbee, Arnold J., 129, 130 n.
- Truman, Harry S, 216, 306; veto of tax legislation by, 20; introduction of full employment bill under, 172; and the election of 1948, 210.

- Turner, W. F.: cast independent vote in election of 1956, 210
- Unionism, Trade: able to establish legal immunities, 12; corruption of, 40; and centralization of power, 151, 262; and demand for annual wage, 183; and escalator clauses, 183; ever raising demands of, 191
- Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 3, 277, 284, 287, 4 n.; defined as democratic, 119; military expenditures consistent with communist system, 188; announced program for disarmament in, affected stock market, 193
- United States of America: physical variation in, 265
- Universal suffrage: prerequisite but not guarantee of democracy, 22
- Van Buren, Martin, 66, 165
- Versailles, Treaty of, 136, 176
- Vinson, Carl A., 294, 298; quoted on impermanence of values in the Constitution, 236; quoted, "there are no absolutes," 293
- Virginia Resolution of Interposition, 243
- Voltaire, 46, 36 n.
- Wade, Ben: Stevens' choice for presidency, 90
- Wall Street: partner of Big Business, 106
- Walters, Raymond, 212-213 n.
- War of 1812: productive of centralization, 115
- Warren, Earl: and the case of Brown v. Board of Education, 234-239; and the case of Bartkus v. Illinois, 246; and supremacy of the judiciary, 306
- Washington, City of, 262, 263
- Washington, George: attitude toward religion, 13; recommendation of isolation, 133; opposed to large Washington, George (cont.)
military establishments, 139, 143; Farewell Address quoted, 260 n.
- Webster, Daniel: on permanence of federalism, 162-163; on caucus system of nomination, 213; on liberty and restraint, 292
- Werner, M. R., 107 n.
- Whitehead, Alfred North: quoted on need for religion in education, 260 n.
- Whitman, Walt, 104
- Williams, Senator John, 185 n.
- Williams, Roger: social contract of in 1636, 36
- Wilson, Charles, 193
- Wilson, James: advocated direct election of Senators, 21
- Wilson, Woodrow, 104, 111, 117; refusal to recognize Huerta regime, 119; extended protectorate device to Santo Domingo and Haiti, 119; his tragedy defined, 121; Armistice Day announcement, 121; independent electoral vote for in 1916, 210
- Wiltse, Charles M., 65 n., 212 n.
- Wisconsin: adopted Resolution of Interposition in 1859, 245
- Wittfogel, Robert B., 266 n.
- Wordsworth, William: reaction to appeal of internationalism against nationalism, 42-43
- World War I: increased centralization in the United States, 120; after-war reaction and League of Nations, 121; and unification of State military units, 143
- World War II: increased centralization, 122, 161; promoted by the depression, 122; and third term for FDR, 159; economic stimulus of, 160
- Wright, Fielding L.: nominated for vice-president in 1948, 215
- Yates, Judge, 64 n.