

Acknowledgement

For bringing to life the history and collective memory on British-born publicist and political renewer Thomas Paine at the place he hoped once to exist – humanity's first planetary organization, the United Nations – we thankfully acknowledge the wonderful work jointly brought forward by international civil servants, academics and specialists whose names, talks and presentations are assembled in this book ...

For making it possible to preserve and spread Thomas Paine's vision that inspired those present at the United Nations to seek and present ways towards the establishment of new channels, to address new routes in political communication, and to discover new human realities, we thankfully acknowledge the generosity and support in producing this book from

THOMAS PAINE FRIENDS, INC.

and their membership. Apart from TPF's President, Irwin Spiegelman, who took the initiative for having this book, we particularly wish to thank:

Maurice Bisheff
Timothy Nelms
Sherwood Smith
James Tepfer
Mickey J. Hayward
John F. Skibiski
Mary and Dana Snyder
Martha Spiegelman
Robert N. Walsh
Leo W. Zonneveld
Joyce Chumbley
Frances Chiu
Edward J. Dodson
Howard Ennes
Keyth Mallam
Stan Rosenberg
Kenneth T. Tellis