

Our New Home

Prosper has a new permanent base for our tax reform outreach.

64 Harcourt Street North Melbourne is just off Flemington Road opposite Royal Melbourne Hospital and very near University of Melbourne.

We have the entire middle floor of this 3 story building.

The Frank Halkyard Library will be unpacked and available to researchers again.

We look forward to resuming our program of interesting speakers and regular seminars on all things land and tax related.

