

Selected Bibliography

PRIMARY SOURCES

1. Henry George Collection:

The major collection of Henry George's published and unpublished works, manuscripts, scrapbooks, notebooks, lectures, correspondence, including bibliographies and related material, is housed in the New York Public Library. A catalogue of this collection, published in 1926, is Henry George and the Single Tax by Rollin Alger Sawyer, then chief of the Economics Division of the library.

2. Standard Editions:

The Writings of Henry George. Ed. HENRY GEORGE, JR. 10 vols. Memorial Edition. New York: Doubleday and McClure, 1898-1901.

The Complete Works of Henry George. 10 vols. Fels Fund Library Edition. Garden City, New York: Doubleday, Page & Co., 1906-1911.

Volume 10 of The Writings and Volumes 9 and 10 of The Complete Works include The Life of Henry George by Henry George, Jr.

3. Selected Condensations of "Progress and Poverty" (all available through the Robert Schalkenbach Foundation):

Henry George's "Progress and Poverty." A new and condensed edition. Ed. A. W. MADSEN. London: Hogarth Press, 1966 (first issued, 1953).

Progress and Poverty by Henry George. Rearranged and abridged for modern readers. Ed. H. G. BROWN. New York: Schalkenbach, 1951 (first issued, 1940).

More Progress and Less Poverty. Ed. J. S. THOMPSON. New York: Schalkenbach, 1942.

Progress and Poverty. (Condensed.) Ed. J. L. BUSEY. New York: Schalkenbach, n.d. These condensations are listed in order of increased brevity. Like all abridgements, they damage unavoidably the literary and poetic character of George's book.

All of Henry George's major works and many of his minor writings have been reprinted by the Robert Schalkenbach Foundation, New York City. The Foundation is associated with the Henry George School of Social Science, branches of which are located throughout the world; therefore, George's works are always in print. These include Progress and Poverty, Social Problems, Protection or Free Trade, The Land Question, Etc., A Perplexed Philosopher, The Science of Political Economy; a selection of his shorter writings in pamphlet form; Henry George's 1886 Campaign, prepared by L. F. Post and F. C. Leubuscher (a collection of important speeches by George and others); The Life of Henry George by his son; and a Concordance to Progress and Poverty, compiled by H. M. McEvoy.
