

INDEX TO THE PUBLIC FOR THE FOURTH YEAR,

COMPRISING NUMBERS 158 TO 209, INCLUSIVE.

The three departments, Editorial, News and Miscellany, are indexed together, but distinguished. Reference figures refer to the page numberings of the volume. The classification follows geographical divisions as closely as possible. N. B.—In searching for an article, do not make a guess as to where it ought to be classified and then look for it there; but glance down the main headings of the index until you come to the classification which you think will probably include a reference to it.

The Public

is a weekly paper which prints in concise and plain terms, with lucid explanations and without editorial bias, all the really valuable news of the world. It is also an editorial paper. Though it abstains from mingling editorial opinions with its news accounts, it has opinions of a pronounced character, which, in the columns reserved for editorial comment, it expresses fully and freely, without favor or prejudice, without fear of consequences, and without hope of discreditable reward. Yet it makes no pretensions to infallibility, either in opinions or in statements of fact; it simply aspires to a deserved reputation for intelligence and honesty in both. Besides its editorial and news features, the paper contains a department of original and selected miscellany, in which appear articles and extracts upon various subjects, verac as well as pro, chosen alike for their literary merit and their wholesome human interest. Familiarity with THE PUBLIC will commend it as a paper that is not only worth reading, but also worth filing.
